BY JOHN STRADER

Ben Freeman has been swimming since he was six years old. As the manager at Dix Memorial Pool in Gordonsville, Freeman operates Orange County's only public swimming pool for the Town of Gordonsville. But before the pool opens in the mornings and after the pool closes in the evenings, Freeman, who coached the Orange County High School varsity boys soccer team this spring, coaches the Gordonsville Orcas swim team. The pool is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 11 - 4, Saturday from 12 - 5 and Sunday from 1 - 5. The pool is closed Wednesdays. To reach the pool, call 832-2427.

PRDC names new directors

Four new members were added to Piedmont Regional Dental Clinic's Board of Directors at the nonprofit's quarterly board meeting June 19 in Orange.

These appointments reflect the evolution of PRDC's collaboration with Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) School of Dentistry over the past year. Dentists returning to VCU for advanced training in pediatric dentistry now perform their community health rotation at PRDC in Orange.

The new directors include: David Sarrett, DMD, MS – Dean, School of Dentistry.

Tegwyn Brickhouse, DDS, PhD-Associate Professor and Chair, Department of Pediatric Dentistry, School of Dentistry. Dr. Brickhouse will serve as PRDC's Director of Dentistry.

Kim Isringhausen, RDH, MPH - Chair of Oral Health Promotion and Community Outreach

Rebecca Pousson, RDH, MBA - Executive Associate Dean and President of VCU Dental Care.

Piedmont Regional Dental Clinic is an independent, nonprofit dental safety net clinic located in Orange dedicated to increasing access to affordable oral health care for all Virginians. Of the clinic's 5,000 patients 96 percent live at or below 200 percent of the federal poverty level.

The clinic accepts Medicaid and Delta Dental insurance and always welcomes walk-ins, emergencies and new patients. For more information on PRDC call (540)661-0008 or visit their website at www.vaprdc.org or on Facebook.
